MAINLY ABOUT WOMEN

A Woman's Prayer.
O, God, I ask Thee not for shorter hours or higher wages.
Not more to eat!
Not for a larger house or jewels rare, not life ease.

The privilege to vote does not my craving soul appease,
And truly not for fame or fortune, Lord, I pray.

But give me love, a husband's love, as pure, and true, and fine
As I give him.
Give me a man with body and innocent of wrong.

As he requires that I should be Give me a man so strong
That I can respect and trust and love, This prayer is mine.

—Eddie Rock Dale.

Members of Trail Club.
Miss Evelyn Windham entertain-

The Twentieth Century Club was given, was decorated with conspicuous taste. Halloween emblems were used all about the rooms. Great clusters of roses in cut glass bowls were on tables and tabourets, while candle sticks capped with yellow shades were placed here and there, shedding a soft glow over the scene.

Trail was played at five tables and after the games a two-course luncheon was served.

The congenial guest list included:
Mesdames McKinley, King, Knox,

Resolutions.

We offer the following preamble and resolutions; viz:

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Disposer of events, in the in-scrutable purposes of his will, to remove from our midst our beloved, honored and valued President, Miss Mary Blount Harrison, by death, which occurred on October 6th, 1915,
and,

Whereas, the hearts of the members of the Stephen D. Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, were filled with sorrow, as the sad intelligence spread among them that they should see her face no more in the Chapter meetings, and that her voice on earth was hushed in silence, and,

Whereas, This Chapter does earnestly desire to place on record an enduring expression of the affectionate regard in which she was held in this organization, and, the endearing remembrance with which her honored name is cherished among us,
and,

Therefore, be it Resolved, That in her decease this chapter has suffered the irreparable loss of its most enthusiastic and entergetic member.
Resolved, Further, That in the life of Miss Mary B. Harrison, we behold displayed a noble fabric of unusual self-sacrifice and service, a continued evidence of purity of motive, an unfaltering devotion to Christian virtue, and a monument of patriotic zeal.

Resolved, Further, That although this Chapter in placing upon record these sentiments of admiration for her noble life, the beautiful character expressed in that life of usefulness, yet the Chapter recognizes the actuality of the fact that no artificial means are needed to keep fresh and green the sainted memory of this dear friend and co-worker in the affections of the living "who knew her, but to love her."

Resolved, Further, That a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the relatives with the assurance of the heart-felt sympathy of every member of this Chapter in their bereavement.

Mrs. D. F. Robertson,
Mrs. Sarah Sheffield,
Mrs. E. A. Lincoln.
